

Bongi Kunene is the managing Director of the Banking Association of South Africa since 2020. Prior to that Bongi was the Pan Africa Head, Public Sector Banking for the Standard Bank Group.

She also was Executive Director at the World Bank Group in Washington DC where she served in the board representing South Africa, Nigeria and Angola. She chaired the Audit Committee of the World Bank Group from November 2016 to October 2018.

Bongi has served in the South African government in different capacities including 4 years in The Presidency first as Chief of Staff for the Deputy President and as the Deputy Director General responsible for economic policy coordination.

She served as the Superintendent General heading the Gauteng Provincial Government's Department of Finance and Economic Affairs. She also served at the National Treasury.

Bongi Kunene
Managing Director,
Banking Association South
Africa